

FOLIO

MAY 1986
KPFK 90.7 FM
PACIFICA RADIO
IN LOS ANGELES

CELEBRATE MAY DAY WITH KPFK

The labor of this worker can be seen in our studios. Pictured across Cahuenga Boulevard is a empty lot never to be seen again. In 1986 we will be remodeling the KPFK building. The plan is to upgrade the KPFK studios and create a new home for the Pacifica Radio Archives and the Pacifica National office.

KPFK FOLIO

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Until a new general manager is hired, the staff and I will be sharing this column to keep you informed about KPFK . . . unfortunately, we can't count on the local press to be accurate! First, thanks to Susan Anderson for managing the station during difficult times. During very short tenures of both Mollie Lowery and Susan, KPFK has overcome the critical debt problems and has been able to stabilize the operations. We wish Susan well as she moves on to become media coordinator of People for the American Way.

What has not been accomplished over the past couple of years is the careful building and nurturing of our programming. To that end, we are very happy to have three outstanding community radio experts coming in to work with staff and programmers. Norman Jayo, Beatriz Lopez-Flores, and Nan Rubin have combined experience of nearly 30 years in community radio as well as other media. Once again, let me say that NO PROGRAMS WILL BE REMOVED FROM THE AIR. All programmers and staff will be working with the consultants to articulate the best possible way in which KPFK can bring you critical news/information
